

a small footstool already. I don't know how I'm going to get them home plus those that I make between now and next holidays. No signs of a job yet I suppose. I wish I could get one. Well Mother I think this is all I have to say (if I have missed anything Christmas isn't far off) so I will close my letter with my best love and best Christmas wishes to all at home.

I Remain
Your Loving Son
Harry

Blue Boat Hospital
Wavertree
Liverpool

Dec 21st 22

Dear Mother

I hope you are in the best of health as it leaves me at present. We are having our Christmas Exam. but we've not finished it yet.
You won't forget to come down on Christmas will you. I don't want any particular Christmas present get any you like, but you might try and get me a game of "Pitt" or if our Ron is home get him to get it. You can get it at any card-shop for about two and ninepence. We breaking up to-day so we'll have some good times with my old casey. You won't forget to wish Aunty Arnie and (Ty) Ivy and Hazel as I suppose Grand mother will be down with you. I haven't seen our Flo since Holidays so you'd better fetch her down on Christmas. The enclosed card is from M^r Hornack but I put my name in to please him. He's been put up into Standard VI out of Standard V because he's too old. We are decorating the Dining Hall now. I've been very busy in the wood-work shop lately because I've got a coal-box, plant-stand kitchen cabinet, stool and have had about six or seven outings in the last few weeks. But Ron is having a long holiday isn't he. I wish our's were so. Will explain to our Etie that I've not had a letter from him since last Holiday morning. Tell him to send one very soon or look out. Our Exam this time is very stiff. Besides the ordinary Exam we're having French and Science. I think that there is twenty-two Plum Puddings so we'll be going great guns on Monday. Tell Grandmother not to forget one of those meat pies she made in the holiday they were delicious. We are