

LORD'S PRAYER FOUR TIMES IN SPACE OF 3D. PIECE

IN response to a challenge, a Liverpool man has performed a remarkable feat of penmanship. He has written the Lord's Prayer four times in the space of a three-penny-piece, and Psalm 23 in a circle three-tenths of an inch in diameter.

He is Mr. E. G. Banks, of Colebrookeroad, Dingle, a member of the staff of the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board.

His delicate workmanship is exhibited at an exhibition of art and crafts by members of the staff guild of the Board.

writer by my colleagues and I did this work in answer to a challenge and to beat the feat of an Egham resident who wrote the Ten Commandments once and the Apostles Creed and Lord's Prayer twice in the area of a three penny liece," he told an Evening Express piece," he told an Evening Express representative.
